FUN THINGS TO DO A SHORT DISTANCE AWAY

- Waikiki Starlight Luau – Experience authentic Hawaiian food and entertainment at the Waikiki Starlight Luau, the only outdoor luau in Waikiki. Located at Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort, the luau features a variety of traditional Hawaiian food using locally sourced ingredients. Entertainment includes traditional Hawaiian music, fire dancers and hula kahiko performers.
- Iolani Palace – This 10-room historic house and museum details the reigns of King Kalakaua and his sister Queen Liliuokalani, Hawaii's final monarchs. Visiting the 'Iolani Palace is your only chance to tour a royal residence on American soil.
- Diamond Head Crater – A volcanic tuff cone on the Hawaiian island of O'ahu and known to Hawaiians as Lē'ahi, most likely from the 'browridge, promontory' plus 'ahi 'tuna' because the shape of the ridge line resembles the shape of a tuna's dorsal fin.
- Pearl Harbor and the U.S.S. Arizona Memorial – The final resting place of 1,102 sailors killed during the Pearl Harbor attack. Located northwest of downtown Honolulu, the site is one of the most visited World War II memorials in the United States.
